

Guest Review Agreement

Thank you for your interest in contributing a guest review!

The Berean Test is committed to help people think more Biblically about their favorite songs with reviews that examine the message, Biblical accuracy, unbeliever interpretation, and inherent glorification of God in song lyrics. Part of this commitment is to allow others to contribute original reviews.

The Berean Test welcomes reviews for songs that do not contain excessive foul language, do not glorify drugs, sex, rape, abuse, murder, or any other heinous crime. All content must be English.

By submitting a guest review, you consent to the following:

2. If you quote from an outside source, ensure that you cite it as part of your review. If you quote from a previous Berean Test review or comment, ensure that you give proper credit.
